On The Great White Way

NEAR-NEWS AND CHATTER FOR SATURDAY NIGHT

To the lady first correctly guessing the identity of the person of whom the following is a character sketch, and bringing a copy of this paper to The Tribune office, a cash prize of $1.00 will be given. The subject of the sketch is a prominent citizen of La Crosse. After winning one prize, a contestant will not be eligible to again compete for a period of three months.

The winner of last week's "Guess Who's Here" contest was Miss Isabelle Van Looen, R. F. D. No. 1, La Crosse, the subject of the sketch being Prof. L. P. Benezet.

He was a man at twenty, and he'll be a boy at eighty. At twenty-seven he's a clever member of an honorable profession, into the lore of which he has dug to make himself a well of knowledge. He is of medium build, looks a lot younger than he is and thinks older than he is. Recently he broke into politics and showed the old timers a few lines about campaigning. He believes the wise candidate insists upon a personally conducted campaign, and he can count noses and sound attitudes painlessly when his subjects least suspect. By the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November he may be expected to possess a political directory of La Crosse annotated with every voter's political whims. He's an upright sort—the clean-cut kind with a frank "I got r' Steve" glance and a square smile. He's unostentatious but not inconspicuous, quiet but emphatic and altogether pleasing and convincing. He'll be a tonic for his party, or rather, a Teutonic, which don't hurt in these parts. His friends think he'll be elected, and we think he otto.

No, old acquaintance should not, but there's no use of arguing in the case of Eastie Irvine, for nobody who ever really knew Eastie could possibly forget him. The writer bumped into Eastie in the Elks' club yesterday and at the first glance the years were eliminated and we were living again the happy days when Eastie was a "cub" with a "nose for news" and a great ambition to star as the sleuth reporter in a sinful metropolis.

Today the blase journalist of the Philadelphia Press looked the part of a man who had gone through all that rot years ago and who had settled down to scientific treatment of the big things in news far removed from the frivolity of red light mysteries and hero-making achievements of the sort sought by gum-chewing damsels in the color section of the latest edition.

However, Eastie hasn't become entirely immune from the sensations of youth, and even during the year of our Lord 1912 he "covered" several national league games for his paper.

Eastie first scraped acquaintance with a city editor on the old Chronicle. He was there in the days of Dow Congdon, now the big smoke on the Minneapolis Journal. Tad Powell, for several years anywhere from police reporter to city editor on any paper anywhere from Seattle to Baltimore, and now story writer held in captivity by his talented wife-journalist who has shanghaied him and sequestered him in the fastnesses of some mysterious mountain on the Arizona border within earshot of the Mexican revolutions, was another contemporary, and Bert Bleekman and Who-by-the-way Hartwell had not in his time won their emancipation from the enthralling romance of journalism only to surrender unconditionally to The Law. Vince Kiddier was his city editor later on The Tribune, and Lefty Hampton was the pal who stuck to him in weal and woe, joy and headache, the glory of achievement and the disgrace of in-subordination. Let it be added that ere Eastie departed this city Joe Kiddier had become the cub of the swarm of reporters at whom the occasionally dignified Dean Irvine

YARNS OF THE TOWN

Way down south any perfect lady who desires to have a gentleman assist her in to a cab or an auto or over a fence or onto her cob asks him to "carry" her. Whether this is the vernacular of the "po" white trash or the colored folks, or the language of the mint julep aristocracy, we cannot say.

Apologies of the above, Leigh Toland might have been seen one day last week walking cautiously around an approximately 260-pound colored lady who had paused for breath in front of the State Bank. She is an elderly person who once each month arrives at that identical spot and seeks the assistance of some good natured chap to help her up the steps "count o' my rheumatiz" so she can draw her pension.

"Please, Mr. Man, kaint ye carry me up dem steps?" she accosted President Toland.

Now there's no kinder soul in this Home of The Brave than Leigh Toland, and even so overwhelming a request failed to daunt his Chesterfieldian gallantry. It gave him a start for a moment, after which he appraisingly walked about the woman like a contractor preparing his plans and specifications. But the longer he figured, the more herculean appeared the task, and at last he apologetically remarked:

"I'm afraid I can't lift you up, mammy, but I'll help all I can if you try to climb up."

"Clare t' goodness, young man! You s'pose I wants you'll t' lift me up dem steps? Oh, Lordy, Lordy! I jus' wants a little 'istance, dat's all," chortled the good old dame.

On the way back from West Salem (or was it at luncheon) Chairman Kneen grinned hesitatingly at Al Schubert, and reassured as to the lawyer's good humor, hazarded the following yarn:

"It was in the 1908 campaign. Billy Wolfe was scheduled to speak at Mindoro, and Schubert was to address a meeting at Stevenstown."

FOUR AMERICANS KILLED IN BATTLE

U. S. Bluejackets Slain in Attack on Nicaraguan Rebels Yesterday

THEY REFUSED TO SURRENDER

Admiral Southerland's Demand Was Refused and Engagement Followed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Four American blue jackets were killed, six wounded and 100 Nicaraguan federal soldiers killed in a battle with Nicaragua, late yesterday, according to a cablegram received today at the Nicaraguan legation, from the minister of foreign affairs at Managua.

General Zeledon, rebel chieftain, and his army were routed according to the dispatch. Zeledon was wounded in the battle. He was captured 18 miles from Masaya and died later a prisoner. The rebel deaths are unknown.

The battle occurred when General Zeledon refused a demand that he surrender, made by Admiral Southerland. The rebels were entrenched on a hill near Coyotopa. They were well armed and put up a vigorous defense when the Americans and Nicaraguan federals deployed on two sides.

The Americans' guns were trained on the rebel army, which returned the fire briskly for an hour, when the rebels broke into disorder. They were pressed hard by the Americans and finally routed. Many were captured, including several wounded revolutionists.

Nicaraguan federal soldiers suffered more severely than the Americans in the engagements. In addition to the 100 federal soldiers killed about 200 were wounded by the rebels' fire.

The battle is believed here to mark bloody finale of the Nicaraguan revolution. The death of General Zeledon following the surrender of General Mena, former rebel leader, leaves the revolution without any head.

Unofficial dispatches to the state department say that the guns did fearful work among the rebels.

CHAUFFEUR FOUND DEAD

SALT LAKE, Utah, Oct. 5.—Thomas E. White, known as Eddie White, a taxicab chauffeur, was found murdered in his taxi in the residence district early today. He had been shot twice through the head and beaten with a blackjack. Robbery was not the motive as a diamond, gold watch, jewelry and some money were not disturbed. A veiled woman entered White's taxicab after midnight and an hour thereafter the chauffeur was found murdered. There is no clue to the identity of the woman.

FIND SUBMARINE

DOVER, Eng., Oct. 5.—Divers today found the British submarine B-2 lost with all but one of its crew of two officers and thirteen men in collision with the Hamburg-American liner Amerika off the south Foreland. The little craft was cut nearly in two.

SCUDELARI DYING

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 5.—Tony Scudelari, 27, who was injured in the fatal accident of David Bruce Brown, millionaire automobile racer, here Tuesday, was reported dying today at Trinity hospital.

JOKER FINED $150

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 5.—Because Charles Johnson put mustard in a man's whiskers he was fined $150 and costs in police court.

FIED—SUICIDE

SAULT STE. MARIE, Oct. 5.—Despondent because he lost his post as railway conductor, William Bell, 48, shot and killed himself in his home here today.

20TH CENTURY CLUB NAMES DELEGATES

The Twentieth Century club was entertained by Mesdames Finch and Law October 1.

The lesson, Little Eyolf, was in charge of Miss Gelatt, who, assisted by Mrs. Longbrake, delightfully read the play.

Mesdames Bradish, Law and Schweizer were chosen delegates, and Mesdames Davis and Vincent alternates to the state convention at Janesville.

INSANE—ATTACKS HUSBAND

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Oct. 5.—Asking permission of Sheriff Graham to bid farewell to her husband alone, Mrs. Harriet Grinnell, 62, wife of Ira Grinnell, prominent citizen of Oakfield, near here, made a murderous attack on her husband with a knife today. His cries brought the sheriff who probably saved his life. Mrs. Grinnell had just been adjudged insane and Sheriff Graham was taking her to an asylum.

CHICAGO RESORTS OUT OF BUSINESS

Police Raids Frighten Away Inmates and Keepers in the Levee District

MAY INVOLVE NOTED PEOPLE

Prominent Social Lights and Church Organizations Said to Own Resorts

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The first sensational arrest order in the vice crusade came today in the service of capias issued by Judge Cottrell, at request of the state's attorney's office for Harrison B. Riley, millionaire president of the Chicago Title & Trust company; Justin W. Dall, secretary of the same corporation, and prominent in church and club circles, for the alleged offense of renting a house in the heart of the tenderloin, to A. Marcovitz, for purposes of prostitution.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Fleeing from flood or pestilence the red light district of Chicago practically went out of business early today. State's attorney Wayman's vice crusade, the most spectacular in the history of the Chicago underworld, swept men, women and girls into the police stations by the score, and when went along the mysterious wires of the underworld that "the raiders are out," autos, carriages and street cars carried hundreds from the segregated districts. In their panic many abandoned their valuables, and others bundled them in tablecloths and hastily improvised packages.

MORTUITY GET AWAY

States Attorney Wayman has filed four hundred complaints against persons in the underworld, but less than half of these can be served. The others are fugitives who fled during the night.

The prosecutor intimates that before the war ends he will cause perhaps several thousand warrants to be issued. If the vice key, a list of owners of property used for the purpose, is procured according to court order, church organizations and prominent men are expected to be revealed as drawing revenue from property used as resorts.

In the police court this morning, three hundred women and men, inmates and keepers of the resorts of the "vice trust," were arraigned. Their cases were variously disposed of. Most of them were fined and warned to cease their calling.

Mayor Harrison has not been moved by the reformers to change his policy of "hands off." He declares he will not order raids unless the courts show that the public demands it. The present raids are being made on warrants issued by the state's attorney. Wayman has been in office for an entire term and retires December 1.

The La Crosse Y. M. C. A. has led in state membership (outside of Milwaukee) for the past three years. Today, as the above table shows, it is third in the membership race with but four more days of the contest.

Shall this city, with its superior building, equipment and organization, accept anything less than first place in the race with Fond du Lac, Eau Claire and Wausau?

Last year the memberships as shown by the Year Books were: La Crosse 903, Eau Claire 542, Fond du Lac 502, Wausau 300. Two to four months from now the local memberships will have come in and the foregoing ratio will exist, but that will be TOO LATE. The record of the contest will have gone out over the entire state declaring La Crosse beaten and its membership but a fraction of the actual amount.

You ARE going to join, why not NOW, WHEN IT WILL SAVE OUR RECORD AND REPUTATION IN THE STATE?

We had 600 members last year. We want 700 to clinch the leadership this year. The workers are working hard, but THEY CAN'T POSSIBLY SEE YOU ALL. If we win, you gentlemen must VOLUNTEER.

Get your application in today. Don't wait to be asked personally. Telephone, or write, or get to the secretary or some member of the committee.

Do it NOW!

VANDERBILT CUP COURSE, MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 5.—With a good lead over other contestants in the International Grand Prix race today, Teddy Tetzlaff was forced to withdraw at the end of 244 miles and relinquish his place to Bragg, his flat teammate. A broken connecting rod caused the trouble.

At the end of 252 miles, 32 laps, Bragg's time was 213:40 and he was running at the average rate of more than 70 miles an hour. Ralph de Palma took second place and Erwin Bergdoll took third place. Anderson in a Sturz, the only American made car now in the race, was fourth.

When 102 miles of the Grand Prix race had been run, Caleb Bragg had driven one-fourth of the total distance of the race in 55 minutes and six seconds. He was forty-two seconds ahead of his flat teammate, Teddy Tetzlaff, and 3 minutes 6 seconds ahead of Ralph de Palma in a Benz car, who had been picked by many as the most likely winner of the race, was more than one lap behind Bragg.

Barney Oldfield, who entered the race late a substitute for David Bruce Brown, who was killed in practice last Tuesday, was exactly nine minutes behind Bragg. The surprise of the race thus far was the showing of Louis Fontaine, a Milwaukee chauffeur, who piloted a Lozier car. His time for one-fourth of the race was 91 minutes, 35 seconds.

Ten cars were running at this time of the race, Ralph Mulford having withdrawn his Knox entry before the start, and Burman and Wishart having dropped out, both on account of broken engine parts.

75,000 SEE RACE

A crowd of 75,000 persons witnessed the Grand Prix, the last event of the Vanderbilt cup automobile road racing program today.

Ralph Mulford's Knox car was not fit to enter the race and the same trouble which put him out of the Vanderbilt cup race caused him to withdraw his entry. Barney Oldfield was driving the flat entry in place of Bruce Brown.

Louis Fontaine took Harry Nelson's place at the wheel of the Lozier entry. Fontaine rode as Nelson's mechanic in the Vanderbilt cup race. Fontaine was formerly chauffeur for Charles F. Pastor of this city.

Farnum Fish, the aviator, was sailing about the course in his Wright biplane as the race began. Seated in the machine was Fred J. Wagner, a Chicago photographer.

Start at 10:10

Promptly at 10:10 Wagner sent Bob Burman and his Benz from the starting line.

Bergdoll who was believed to have the best chance, started with no noise except the booming of his own engine. Caleb Bragg, the maniac driver was cheered as loudly as any other starters. Barney Oldfield laughed and kidded Starter Fred J. Wagner as he was sent off amid a rousing cheer.

ALLEGED INTERESTS CONTROL DEMOCRATS

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 5.—That special interests have captured the state organization of the democratic party is the charge made in a statement by the republican state central committee printed in the political pamphlet published under the corrupt practices act.

The democratic party is charged with having repudiated the income tax at its platform convention, although the democratic party had pledged itself to the principal graduated income tax in 1906, 1908, 1910 and again at its delegates' convention in August, 1912.

FARLEY GETS PLACE

ROME, Oct. 5.—The pope today appointed Cardinal Farley of New York protector of the Sisters of Charity institute of St. Vincent di Paoli, in Boston. Considerable curiosity was expressed as to the reason why Cardinal O'Connell of Boston did not receive the appointment.

COUNTY TO SPEND $55,000 ON ROADS

Table of Appropriations Shows that County Is Taking Advantage of State Aid Law

SPEND MORE THAN LAST YEAR

Amount Nearly Doubles that Appropriated for 1912; All Towns Want Improvements

The report of appropriations made by towns for road and bridge improvements, the prospective county appropriations and the prospective state aid, as completed by County Clerk Charles Rawlinson shows that approximately $55,250 will be spent on La Crosse county roads and bridges during the summer of 1913.

Every town in the county has made an appropriation for roads and many have made bridge appropriations. The report has been compiled and sent to the state highway commission to be used in allotting La Crosse county its share of state aid. This is much larger than the amount appropriated last fall.

PETERSON STANDS BEFORE JUDGE AND ADMITS HIS GUILT

Slayer of Ella Yttre Is Arraigned Before Judge John Brindley Today

REFUSES TO HIRE A LAWYER

Committed to County Jail to Await Trial or Sentence in Circuit Court

ACCUSED IS GRIEF STRICKEN

Weeps as He Takes Seat After Admitting Murder of Woman He Loved

John B. Peterson, who shot and killed Ella Yttre of De Soto, Minn., a bride of twenty-four hours, and then turned the gun upon himself in a vain effort to commit suicide, was taken from the St. Francis hospital shortly before noon today, arraigned before Judge John Brindley in county court and committed to the county jail to await trial or sentence in circuit court, which opens the latter part of this month.

Peterson was taken before Judge Brindley by Captain Larry Dugan and Sheriff Chris Burns. He admitted his guilt, refused to employ an attorney and was committed to the custody of the sheriff—the entire transaction taking place in less than five minutes.

Admits His Guilt

With his self inflicted wounds concealed by the heavy swathing of white bandages which covered the upper part of his head, his face working with emotion and staggering slightly as he stood before the judge's bench, Peterson presented a pitiful spectacle as he admitted his guilt. His voice was weak and thin and his eyes filled with tears when he spoke the word that will send him to the state penitentiary for life. He wept as he took his seat in the jury chair after the judge committed him to jail to await the opening of circuit court.

Peterson was taken from the hospital to the court house by Captain Dugan in a carriage and he was supported and escorted into the court room by Sheriff Burns and Captain Dugan. He was forced to wait a few moments until District Attorney James Thompson arrived. He was then arraigned before Judge Brindley. A hush fell over the room as he stood before the judge.

"You are accused of feloniously and with malice aforethought murdering Ella Yttre, on the twenty-sixth day of September, in the city of La Crosse." Judge Brindley read from the warrant. "What have you to say? Did you do it, or did you not?"

"Yes, I did it," Peterson answered. "Do you wish for an examination?" asked the judge.

"No," was the reply.

"Have you an attorney, or do you wish for one?"

He shook his head and said, "No, I don't care for an attorney."

"You are committed to the county jail for trial before the circuit court."

BROOKLYN, Oct. 5.—The Boston Braves smothered the Phillies yesterday, 14 to 2, outbating and outfielding the visitors from every angle. CHAMPIONS FINISH*SEASONS TODAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Giants and Red Sox are scheduled to wind up the season's schedules in their respective leagues this afternoon. Unless more players should be hurt in today's game, the two teams will enter the world's series in good condition.

Only one player, Larry Gardner third baseman for the Red Sox, has a fractured finger, but it has been mending rapidly and he will hold down his sack. The injured digit is expected to hinder his play somewhat, however.

Larry Doyle, Captain and second sacker of the Giants, was spiked at Brooklyn Thursday and seemed to be somewhat crippled, but he was as swift on his feet as ever yesterday against the Dodgers. Aside from Gardner and Doyle McGraw and Stahl have succeeded in keeping their men in the best of conditions. The Giants will have a workout Monday afternoon to keep in trim meeting the Highlanders at the Polo grounds in a special game for the sailors from the U. S. fleet. The Red Sox have been visiting the Athletics this week end, and have taken many solid pointers from the men of Mack. The Giants will probably spend Sunday and Monday resting.

NATIONAL TOUR*IS POSTPONED

The A. A. A. national tour committee today decided to postpone the annual reliability event until next year. Presidential campaign activities are held responsible for a depleted entry list and suspended interest in long-distance touring competition. Many cities guarantee teams for next year, and several sections of the Detroit-New Orleans route now under improvement will have been finished.

KONEY AND PALS
HERE OCTOBER 20

All Stars of the Cardinals Will Play Picked Team of Local Ball-tossers

WATSON TO TOE THE SLAB

Former Outcast Will Oppose His Slants to Major Leaguers' Big Swings

Starting in on their trip October 17, Ed Konetchy and the St. Louis Cardinals will be here on Sunday, October 20, to play an exhibition game with La Crosse at League park. All the stars of the Cardinal team will be here and local fans will be given an opportunity to see how Koney guards the first sack in such a way that he is regarded as one of the best first sackers in the game.

This will be the second time that the St. Louis club has appeared here for they played an exhibition with the local club last fall and all the fans remember their fast style of play. A fast local team has been organized to oppose the Cardinals and this aggregation promises to give the big leaguers a good game.

Watson, former local southpaw, who is now twirling with the Milwaukee club, will toe the slab for La Crosse and his twirling against the heavy hitting Cardinals will be watched with interest by the local fans. Watson has been effective in the American association and he will have his best assortment of slants to hurl against the Cardinals when the big leaguers face him. Opposed to the southpaw will be either Geyer or Griner, two Cardinal pitchers who have done good work this season.

The Cardinals' schedule includes games at Cedar Rapids on October 17, Dubuque October 18 and 19, La Crosse October 20, Galesville October 21, Caledonia October 22 and Winona October 23. Following these games the entire party will go to Rose's cottage for a three week's camping trip. Konetchy will be accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Rosenthal, wife of the privilege man of the Cardinals, and Mrs. Bond will also be in the party.

The lineup of the teams will be as follows:

Cardinals — Catcher, Bresnahan; pitchers, Geyer, Griner; first base, Konetchy; second base, Huggins; shortstop, Houser; third base, Mowrey; left field, Ellis; center field, Oakes; right field, Evans.

GARDER IS ELECTED CLOTHIER MANAGER

At a meeting of the La Crosse Clothing company baseball club held last evening at Kabat's hall, Lester Garder, an enthusiastic local semipro baseball fan, was unanimously elected manager to succeed Theo. D. Solle, who has been at the head of the club for the last four seasons. Mr. Garder will take charge of the club immediately and arrangements were completed last evening for the fourth annual dance to be given by the club on October 26. The different business affairs were gone over very thoroughly and although the club lost the city championship this fall, the financial end of it was, as usual, a big success. The following members of the club were present: Falk, Bartels, Hess, Lassing, Solle, Garder, Pederson, Ulrich, Satek, Bartl, Kabat, Krause, Kane and Hyer.

The Senators' hold on second place was increased by defeating the Highlanders. If they lose their remaining game they will still be tied with the Athletics. If they win today the place is theirs.

est men of well earned rights upon a technicality new to the experience of county politicians, and he has so worded his opinion that an injustice may be avoided without losing the lesson that "it would have been better" had the candidates filed statements of "no expense," and that the filing "should be done yet."

We shall all "live happily ever after" if we add to Mr. Bancroft's suggestion that the filing be "done yet" the conclusion that it "shall always be done hereafter." It's a good little law, now that we all understand it.

THE COST OF WAR ON WHITE SLAVERY

One million dollars would suppress white slavery in this country in one year. An annual appropriation of $250,000 would keep it suppressed. These statements are made by Stanley W. Finch, head of the federal bureau organized under the law of June 25, 1910, to wipe out the traffic in girls.

The million would be well spent. Not only the present generation, but posterity would draw interest on the investment. With white slavery put out of business a heavy blow would be dealt to the social evil, its shame and its diseases. This cancerous growth of our twentieth century civilization flourishes on the traffic in women's bodies. With the source of supply for dens and evil resorts cut off the social evil could not long withstand the more and more determined assaults which society is making on it.

At one time it was said, and accepted by the great majority as true, that the trade in immorality was inevitable. Students pointed to the immemorial nature of this "oldest profession" and said that what the world had tolerated for centuries must be endured for all time to come. We are realizing that this is not true. The same attitude was taken toward slavery by many respectable people, who, while they did not approve of it, yet considered it was too deep rooted to be stamped out. Slavery likewise had centuries and centuries of tradition back of it.

It is not at all unlikely that the twentieth century will see white slavery and its fruit, the social evil, driven to the very outposts of civilization. It is not at all unlikely that a few years hence cities instead of flaunting a "red light" district at visitors will take pride in proving to all comers that there is no section which can qualify for the unenviable title. As the name of the book which Jane Addams has written on the subject indicates, there is in the world today a "new conscience" toward this "ancient evil."

The Leader-Press should caution its reporter against talking loosely about "getting even" with the fellow who "didn't give him a square deal" on the campaign statement story. If it was such a "ridiculous" story, why is the reporter angry because he didn't get a chance to publish it?

Andrew Carnegie has succeeded in closing all the drinking places within fourteen miles of his castle at Skibo. But is the castle cellar an oasis in the desert?

MR. BANCROFT'S RULING MENDS THE MATTER

While it is probably not good law—if it is, the corrupt practices act may as well be thrown in the waste-paper basket—the unofficial ruling of Judge Bancroft to the effect that candidates who spent nothing in the primary should not be withheld from the official ballot for failure to file sworn statements to that effect will doubtless, in the present case, serve the ends of justice better than would a more logical interpretation of the statute.

As to the law itself, if it did not intend that candidates who spent nothing shall file statements, it furnishes every rascal who desires to do so a means of evading it without encountering the jeopardy involved in a perjured affidavit.

If Mr. Bancroft did not believe it was the intent of the law that such sworn statements should be filed, why did he furnish county clerks with affidavits for that purpose?

In saying that, while he does not regard that as the intent of the law, "it would have been much better if candidates filed a statement that they made no disbursements," and that "perhaps that should be done yet in order that the county clerk may be apprised of the facts which would justify him in placing their names upon the official ballot," the attorney general admits that there exists in his mind a question as to the proceedings here satisfying the law.

To illustrate the inaccuracy of Mr. Bancroft's ruling, he holds that no item of expense of less than five dollars need be filed. The law actually provides that no item less than five dollars need be ITEMIZED, but that the "total amount of disbursements made in any amounts or manner whatsoever" must be filed. See Sec. 94-9-3, Corrupt Practices act.

However, Mr. Bancroft has taken the human view. He has rightly assumed that the exact application of the law would deprive a lot of honest

Smoke of Herbs Cures Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way and It Costs Nothing to Try

This preparation of herbs, leaves, flowers and berries (containing no tobacco or habit-forming drugs) is either smoked in an ordinary clean pipe or smoking tube, and by drawing the medicated smoke into the mouth and inhaling into the lungs or sending it out through the nostrils in a perfectly natural way, the worst case of Catarrh can be eradicated.

It is not unpleasant to use, and at the same time it is entirely harmless, and can be used by man, woman or child.

Just as Catarrh is contracted by breathing cold or dust and germ-laden air, just so this balsmy antiseptic smoking remedy goes to all the affected parts of the air passages of the head, nose, throat and lungs. It can readily be seen why the ordinary treatments, such as sprays, ointments, salves, liquid or tablet medicines fail—they do not and cannot reach all the affected parts.

If you have catarrh of the nose, throat or lungs, choking, stopped-up feeling, colds, catarrhal headaches; if you are given to hawking and spitting, this simple yet scientific treatment should cure you.

An illustrated book which goes thoroughly into the whole system of the cause, cure and prevention of catarrh will, upon request be sent you by Dr. J. W. Blosser, 186 Walton street, Atlanta, Ga.

He will, also, mail you five days' free treatment. You will at once see that it is a wonderful remedy, and as it only costs one dollar for the regular treatment, it is within the reach of everyone. It is not necessary to send any money—simply send your name and address and the booklet and free trial package will be mailed you immediately.

Modern Matrimony

Dear one, when we exchange our vows

We'll knot the loosest sort of tie; For our ideals, like our brows, Are broad and high.

SHE.

A simple hitch I should prefer, As simple as we can devise; A lovers'-bowline, as it were— One yank unties.

HE.

This nuptial pact shall not coerce Our own sweet wills to a single jot. We'll chop "for better or for worse" And all that rot.

SHE.

My love, your sentiments are mine; I echo them with all my heart. I simply can't endure that line—"Till death us part."

SHE.

My idol, I am overjoyed! I shan't love twice; but if I should This contract will be null and void: That's understood.

SHE.

I shall not dream of liberty But if I should—you'll understand The bonds that bind us now will be As ropes of sand.

HE.

I am the needle, you the pole! O Pole, my constancy you know But should I not remain heart-whole I'm free to go.

SHE.

I am the flower, you are my sun! O Sun, you know my constancy. But if I choose to cut and run You quite agree.

TOGETHER

Since you love me as I love you, Herewith a sacred troth we plight. Each to the other will be true: If not—good night!

Very Well

"Mother writes that she will be here tomorrow for a short visit, my dear," said a young wife. "Very well," replied her husband, and as he left the house he patted his little boy on the head kindly and said, "Bobby, didn't you ask me to buy you a tin whistle and a drum the other day?" "Yes, dad," "Well, I will bring them home tonight!"

"Noo," said Mr. MacSwish, the autocrat of the little Scotch school, "ye'll recite that poem afore a' the class, Willie MacSwithe, an' see that ye gie it in perfect English." The youthful William declaimed with such ability that the dominie was moved almost to tears—nay, he even rewarded the diligent scholar with a halfpenny. "It was weel done," he said—"near as weel as I could hae done it masel".

Ishiner MacAlister, we'll hear ye neest." The recitation of MacAlister was given in even more perfect English than the last. The dominie was delighted. "Laddie," said he, in an ecstasy of satisfaction, "if I had that bawbee back again I'd gie it tae ye!"

"Ya-as," said the old gentleman, stroking his whiskers thoughtfully. "Kin ye prove it?"

"I have five witnesses in my guests," said Dubleigh. "Wa-al, I'll take yer word for it," said the stranger. "Jest fork over twenty-five, and we'll call it square. I'm jestice o' the peace round here, and it'll save time to settle this violation right naow."—Harper's Weekly.

HE COMES UP SMILING

Copyright: Robts-Merrill Co.

The Watermelon watched her covertly from the cigarette he was rolling, the clear oval of her dainty profile, her slender throat and well-shaped head with its coronet of braids.

"Dark as misery," said Henrietta dreamily.

"In the day, one sees a world," quoted Bartlett, standing beside her where she leaned, a slender figure, against the post of the porch. "In the night one sees a universe," and he waved his lighted cigar vaguely toward the myriads of stars above them.

"What good does that do," asked the Watermelon, "seeing a universe? It's miles away and can't help you any."

"Ah, but it's beautiful," cried Henrietta, who had never had much experience with misery. "It teaches one to look up, the night-time does."

The Watermelon lighted his cigarette in the cup of his hand and tossed his match away. "If you are trying to walk in the dark," he objected, "trying to get out of your troubles, say, and not standing still in the same old place, you can't look up."

"You have no beauty in your soul," declared Henrietta. "I think the idea is beautiful, seeing a universe."

"When you are down and out, you don't take any pleasure in looking at a universe," said the Watermelon. "A dollar, or even a quarter, will look a darned sight more beautiful."

"I wouldn't like to be poor," said Billy. "It must be so terrible to have no motor-car, for one thing."

"It is," agreed the Watermelon, who would have agreed to anything Billy said. "It's simply awful."

"What did you mind most," asked Billy, "when you were a newsboy?"

"Let's go look at the universe," suggested the Watermelon hastily. "We can see it much better down the road a bit."

Billy consented, and they strolled away in the dark. The general, who thought he was talking politics, was laying down the law to the hotel clerk, and Henrietta and Bartlett were left alone. They lingered a moment on the porch and then quietly disappeared up the road in the opposite direction from that taken by Billy and the Watermelon.

Bartlett's desire was to reach Maine as soon as possible and get lost over Saturday, but to avoid every city and larger town on the way and to hurry by the smaller places where there might be telegraph or telephone connections.

"Out of touch of the world for a week," he was fond of repeating, "no letters, no papers, no worries and no nerves."

And his desire was the Watermelon's. The more they avoided towns, the better the youth liked it. Telegraph and telephone stations were zealously shunned. He would have liked to have seen a paper, so as to judge what the police thought in the case of the theft of the wealthy young stock-broker's car, provided Bachelor had allowed the thing to become public, which he very much doubted, from the little he knew of the man's character. It was hardly an episode one would care to see in print if one was dignified and self-made. And the Watermelon chuckled.

It took them longer than Bartlett hoped, sticking to narrow, unused country roads, and the next night found them still in Vermont. They spent the night at the village boarding-house, and once again Billy and the Watermelon went down the road a bit to look at the universe, and Henrietta and Bartlett went up the road.

The following day, to Bartlett's satisfaction, they got lost. It was late in the afternoon when they stopped at Milford, a small town in New Hampshire, and made inquiries about the next town. Was it far and would the accommodations be good? It wasn't far, the farmer whom they questioned, assured them, only five miles. He directed them how to go and they thanked him and pushed on.

They went on and on and night-fall found them in a lonely bit of wooded road apparently miles from any town or habitation. Bartlett was pleased. They were lost, and by great luck they might remain lost for a considerable length of time. The general, too, was delighted. They would make a night of it. It was what he had long wanted to do and now they would have to. The lunch basket had been filled earlier in the day at a country store, so there would be enough to eat. The seats of the autos were soft and one could sleep in the cars or on the ground, as one preferred. It was warm and the rugs and shawls would be covering enough.

They ran the cars out of the road to a convenient clearing. Henrietta got out the basket, shawls were spread on the ground in the light of the two cars and they prepared to make the best of things.

"This is like old times," declared the general genially. "A night on the march, far out on the prairies, not a thing in sight, not a sound but a coyote yelping or the cry of a wolf."

"And Indians," said Henrietta, "hiding back of the nearest hillock, creeping up on you unawares."

Billy glanced behind her at the woods and wished they had chosen a more open place to dine.

"Yes," agreed the general cheerfully, "or down in some southern swamp, with the Johnny Rebs stealing through the bushes."

"Oh, please," begged Billy. "What's the use of telling about things creeping up on you?"

And she glanced again at the bit of wood she could see in the light of the lamps. Far in the west the moon was sinking and here and there a star twinkled between the rolling clouds. A thunder-head was now and then revealed distinctly by flashes of distant lightning, and thunder rumbled ominously in the sultry night. A whippoorwill called steadily and once a bat on graceful wing flew by in the eery light.

The general laughed. "That was living in those days, Billy," he said. "A man was a man and not an office automaton, a dimes saving bank."

TRAIN ROBBERS MAKE GETAWAY

Blow Safes in Baggage Cars and Escape with Unknown Amount of Loot

FT. SMITH, Ark., Oct. 5.—After an all night search, a posse of citizens and deputy sheriffs with bloodhounds from Ft. Smith early today had found no trace of the robbers, who held up the Kansas City Southern passenger train near Porteau, Okla. After destroying two safes in the baggage car with nitroglycerine the bandits escaped into the Kavanagh mountains with the loot. The amount of money they secured is not known although it is stated that a Navener bank had $7,000 aboard the train.

In addition to staging one of the boldest robberies in the history of the southwest the robbers endangered the lives of scores of passengers when they stopped the train. A fast freight was bearing down upon the passenger and would have crashed into it had not a brakeman run back and flagged the onrushing train.

Members of the train crew say there were at least three and possibly six men, involved in the robbery. Two baggagemen and the conductor and express messenger were covered, and imprisoned behind the trunks while the robbers worked. The bandits boarded the train at a crossing

JOHN DESMOND HAS WIERD PIG

North Side Collector Adds to Collection Porker with Material for Two Animals

A pig which has eight legs, four ears, two bodies, one head, two tongues and two throats is the curiosity which John Desmond has added to his collection. The pig is attracting much attention. It is doubtful if another pig like this has ever been seen.

Mr. Desmond has a large collection of freak animals but he considers the pig the most remarkable of the set. He secured the animal from Wykoff, Minn., where it was born last April. It lived for nine days.

The pig is a small one, weighing between two or three pounds and Mr. Desmond is now keeping it, intending to have it mounted in the future. The animal has eight legs, six of which touched the ground for it to walk on, while the other two protruded from the top of its body and were of no use in walking. On each side of its head the pig has one ear while in the back of the head is found a double ear, thus making four. The two bodies can be plainly distinguished as can also the two throats and examination has shown that there are two tongues in the animal. The animal has but one head.

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold, Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a Little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.

The program of the northwestern branch of the foreign missionary convention which will be held in this city October 8 to 11, was announced today. It is expected that more than 500 out of town delegates will be here to attend the sessions and the preparation for such large numbers of visitors has taxed the powers of the entertainment committee to the utmost and it is only by the co-operation of the people of La Crosse that accommodations for all the visitors will be found.

An appeal for assistance in the emergency has been issued by the committee on entertainment as follows:

"If in the canvass of the committee any one has been missed who would like to help these women who labor in the gospel, by offering lodging and breakfast for three days, or one or the other at their disposal, they will confer a favor by telephoning to Mrs. J. CHAMPION BILLIARD
PLAYER IS BEATEN

Alex Emslie, Milwaukee state billiard champion, met with defeat at the hands of J. N. Brown, Milwaukee, former champion of the state, when they participated in an exhibition of 14.2 ball line billiards at the La Crosse club.

Mr. Brown also beat C. H. Schweizer in a game of straight rail billiards before he played the champion.

When he played C. H. Schweizer, Emslie put up a wonderful game, winning from the local man 300 to 176.

Emslie made a high run of ninety-four, his average for the game being 14.23, while Schweizer's high run was forty and his average was 8.33.

In the game between Brown and Schweizer the former won out by the score of 300 to 201.

The former champion's average was 11.11 and he made a high run of sixty-eight. Schweizer had a high run of thirty-five and he averaged 7.40.

Brown won an easy victory over Emslie, as he made 300 while his opponent was scoring 153. Brown played a spectacular game with a high run of forty-nine and an average of 14.28, while Emslie's high run was twenty-four and his average 7.65.

Mr. Brown illustrated and gave a talk on how to play straight rail billiards.

He Received for the "Jobs," Is the

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 5.—"The regular price paid by the iron workers for dynamiting jobs was $125," said District Attorney Miller today continuing his opening statement, "but Herbert S. Hockin, of Detroit, present secretary-treasurer of the union, pocketing considerable money by the transactions."

"Is Hockin in the room?" demanded Miller. "If he is, I want to see him. I am told he is not here."

Hockin, blushing crimson stood up, amid the chuckles of his co-defendants.

"That man double-crossed McManigal. He double-crossed the organization," shouted Miller, leveling his finger at Hockin. "I'll tell you later how that man conveyed information to this federal building incriminating his fellows while he sought to save himself."

"I'll show you how this man double-crossed even while carrying on this damnable business."

Hockin did not once look up during this scathing arraignment. A dull flush mounted his face. Miller declared that McManigal got but $100 and $25 expenses for the Mount Vernon job, while Hockin charged up $200 and $35 expenses, pocketing $110. It came out, he said, when J. B. McNamara told McManigal he would receive $200 for a job in Pennsylvania.

"McManigal said he never before got but $100 and expenses."

McNamara told him that the check book at Indianapolis showed $235 in each case.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Rechad Pasha and Petro Bertolini, the Turkish and Italian delegates who have been discussing peace terms at Ouchy, left the Swiss town last evening, it was learned here today, Rechad for Constantinople and Bertolini for Cavour, where the premier is staying. The news bears out the story that the two delegates have agreed on peace terms and have gone to submit them to their respective governments for approval. What the terms are is already known to the cabinets. Official information from Constantinople and unofficial but reliable reports from Rome are to the effect that both ministries have voted to accept them. Reports that Italian warships have bombarded the forts at Shkarsaid, north of Perm, are not looked on here as indicating peace overtures have failed. It is presumed that the Italian admiralty has as yet had no opportunity of notifying all its naval commanders that peace has practically been agreed on.

Serbia Renews Demand

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—Turkey will have 25,000 troops mobilized by Monday it was stated on semi-official authority today. They will be divided into two armies.

and no bonds are permitted in a case of this kind," said Judge Brindley, and Peterson took his seat until the commitment papers were made out.

Whether he grieved for the girl he loved and who, he says, he did not know was married the day before he shot her dead on the Burlington station platform as she and her bridegroom were about to return to their home in De Soto, or whether he was sorry that his attempt to join her in the grave failed, is not known but he wept as he took his seat.

Likely to Plead Guilty

From Peterson's actions in county court today it appears that he intends to plead guilty to the charge of murder. It has been rumored that an insanity plea may be entered by the accused, but his ready admission of his guilt today and his refusal to employ or accept an attorney indicate that he is anxious to avoid trial and is prepared to pay the penalty by spending the remainder of his life in prison without making any fight for liberty.

But few persons outside of the employees of the court house were present when Peterson was arraigned, the police keeping the time of his arraignment secret so as to avoid causing a crowd of curious persons in the court room to see the accused man. A telephone message from D. J. Egan, the physician who has been attending him, today notified the police that Peterson was in condition to be moved. He was taken to the county jail immediately after his arraignment. It will be necessary for a doctor to visit the jail a few times until his wounds are entirely healed.

EXPECT TO ADD 200 MORE

Believed that End of the Work Will See 500
Names on the List

The final plans for the membership campaign which will be conducted by the board of trade next week were completed at a noonday luncheon meeting of the board of directors at the La Crosse Club today. Following the plan outlined by Secretary J. L. Utermoehl at the last annual meeting, the city will be divided into sections each of which will be canvassed by a team of members of the board of trade. Lists of prospective members have been prepared and letters setting forth the reasons why they should join the civic institution will be sent out in large numbers as preparatory steps for the teams. The captains and their teams will meet at some central point every morning of the campaign at 9 o'clock to consider the steps for that day. They will meet again at noon for luncheon to report the progress of their work.

Fees Reduced

The membership fees have been reduced so that it costs only two dollars for membership for the balance of this year which closes January 31. This includes a ticket to the six o'clock dinner which will be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium October 15, the closing day of the membership campaign. The present membership of the board of trade is about 300 and it is the confident prediction of the board of directors that this will be raised to at least 500 by the end of the campaign. A prominent out of town speaker will be engaged to deliver an address at the Booster Banquet Oct. 15.

The board of directors at the meeting today also took steps to procure a large representation of La Crosse people at the county fair which will be held in Caledonia next week. A committee was appointed to confer with the merchants and jobbers and grocers' associations and other civic bodies and a general invitation is extended to the public to go over to the Minnesota fair on next Friday which has been designated as La Crosse Day. The regular train service is such that it will be unnecessary to hire special trains. A subscription has been started to raise a fund to take a band along and it is expected that a large crowd will be attracted.

HOME EFFICIENCY IS FUNDAMENTAL

C. P. Cary Tells Society for Prevention of Infant Mortality Need of Specialization

CONTINUE SCHOOL PROBLEM

Says Right Manner of Conducting a Home Should Be Part of Instruction

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 5.—Speaking before the National Society for the Prevention of Infant Mortality here Thursday afternoon, State Superintendent C. P. Cary of Wisconsin declared that the general efficiency of the home is fundamental in importance. Mr. Cary has been spending weeks investigating the schools in this vicinity and is especially interested in the continuation schools.

Is Fundamental.

"Infant mortality has its broad, general aspect and its narrow and highly specialized phases," declares Mr. Cary. "The general efficiency of the home is fundamental in importance. It is highly desirable that both father and mother should possess specialized knowledge with reference to the care for infants. When we raise the question as to the general efficiency of the family from the point of view of the father, we have in mind his average earning capacity, his physical and mental vigor, his attitude toward family life, and the ethical code generally, including sobriety, thrift, reliability, and sense of workmanship. Ignorance, laziness, selfishness, lack of skill, wrong-mindedness, drunkenness and unreliability—one or more of these shortcomings will be found as the root of most family inefficiency. On the other hand, intelligence, skill, self-respect, and right ideals, together with the economic virtues, practically insure a happy, well-nourished, efficient and progressive family. Children born into such an environment are almost certain to live and thrive, and to become respectable, law-abiding citizens.

Problem of Schools.

"The problems for the continuation schools are to develop, in so far as time and opportunity permit, these qualities that make for general economic and industrial efficiency on the part of prospective fathers of families, and to give such direct instruction in the laws of eugenics and personal hygiene as will tend to produce healthy and vigorous offspring. Sex hygiene is a difficult subject to teach with the proper delicacy and effectiveness. We have not yet developed a technique of instruction or reduced the problem to the right pedagogic form, but all this must be accomplished. The problem of such instruction is exceedingly complex, partly for the reason that such prejudice, much in the way of low ideals, much of prudery and much of scepticism stand in the way of bringing this phase of instruction to a successful issue; it will be observed, however, in this, as in all other things, that correct ideas gradually displace false and injurious ideas, and that in the course of time the heaven will penetrate every nook and corner. It is especially desirable that both the boys and girls, who, in the main, have either dropped out of school because of lack of interest, or because of economic necessity, and who are thus early, in the adolescent period thrown in contact with the world, with all its wiles and temptations, should be protected in so far as possible by sane and proper instruction concerning the most vital things in life.

TRAIN SMASHES DEPOT

MADRID, Oct. 5.—The brakes failing to work, a railroad train dashed through the stone wall at Alicante last evening into a crowded waiting room killing nine and injuring 122 according to despatches today from the scene of the accident. Of the injured many will die.

Railroad wrecks have been numerous throughout Spain in the past few days. The regular railroad men practically all are out on strike and the few trains which are running are manned by inexperienced crews.

DON'T SCOLD AN IRRITABLE CHILD

If tongue is coated, stomach sour, breath feverish, give "Syrup of Figs" to clean the bowels

Your child isn't naturally cross, irritable and peevish, Mother! Examine the tongue; if coated, it means the little ones' stomach is disordered, liver inactive and its thirty feet of bowels clogged with foul, decaying waste.

Every mother realizes after giving delicious "Syrup of Figs" that this is the ideal laxative and physic for children. Nothing else regulates the little one's tender stomach, liver and bowels so effectively, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

For constipated bowels, sluggish liver, biliousness, or sour, disordered stomach, feverishness, diarrhoea, sore throat, bad breath or to break a cold, give one-half to a teaspoonful of "Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, sour bile, undigested food and constipated matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

THEATRE NEWS

LANDING IN BASKETS.

When Sousa and his band reached Cape Town, Africa, they were landed by the basketful from ship to lighter, and were then taken ashore. It was a tickling operation, and there was a vast amount of squirming and screaming as the baskets swung out over the ship's side.

Sousa and his band, and soloists, will cast anchor here on Tuesday, Oct. 15, matinee only, La Crosse theater.

When all is said and done, Sousa is THE bandmaster of his generation. More than any other musician, he typifies the American spirit, for he has carried, with supreme confidence in his resources, his great aggregation of musicians to the four corners of the globe. And the universal opinion is that Sousa and his band stand alone in being unequalled, incomparable, and the most perfect musical organization in existence. This is something not claimed by Mr. Sousa in an egotistical sense, but conceded to him by the highest musical authorities of the age from every land. Sousa and his band have been heard the world over, and it will be an event of more than usual interest when his renowned organization appears here at La Crosse theater on Tuesday, Oct. 15, matinee only, with Miss Virginia Root, soprano, Miss Nicoline Zedeler, violinist, and Mr. Herbert L. Clarke, cornetist, as soloists, giving the same high class and popular concerts that have made the name of Sousa a household word.

H. H. Frazee's production of James Montgomery's novel and unique comedy, "Ready Money," comes to the La Crosse theater Saturday, Oct. 12, matinee and night, with the endorsement of Chicago, New York and London. It is seldom that a western product can run the gauntlet of eastern criticism with such startling success as is revealed in the instance of "Ready Money." But the fact that the English have received the play with such cordiality may have had some bearing upon its New York reception. Whatever the cause, it is nevertheless a fact that "Ready Money" is the reigning success of the two greatest metropolises of the world and will undoubtedly make an ample fortune for both Mr. Frazee and Mr. Montgomery.

Pursuant to a liberal policy, Mr. Frazee will present a cast this coming week that embraces a number of clever "stars" and associate players. Hans Robert of "Checkers" fame will appear as the young hero, Stephen Baird, whilst Edwin Nordie, whose name is familiar to all theatergoers, will be seen as the counterfeiter, Jackson Ives. Louis

CHICAGO MAYOR FOR RED LIGHT

Harrison Declares He Believes in Segregated Vice District for Cities

ARREST 135 RESORT OWNERS

Campaign Started to Reform the Levee District of Windy City

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Following the arrest today of 135 persons charged with operating resorts in Chicago, Mayor Harrison issued a statement in which he expressed the fear that little good would come from the present widespread reform move that has been started with a view to putting out of business Chicago's vice districts.

"I regard the social evil as a necessary evil which will not be dispensed with until the people have reached a higher moral plane," said the mayor. "It has existed for all time, and I do not believe that suppression is possible in Chicago now, and I do not regard attempted suppression as a possible remedy."

"If the trials of those persons arrested today indicate that there is a strong enough public demand for the closing of the segregated vice districts I will close them. If this action is taken, however, I anticipate shortly a reversal of public opinion, as has taken place in other cities where the vice districts were closed. I believe that the keepers and inmates of these places will scatter to the better residence sections of the city and there will be such a revulsion of public sentiment that the segregated vice district under proper regulation will be welcomed."

Kimball, who was featured with "Brewster's Millions," has one of the important juvenile roles, and other prominent and well-known players in the cast are William W. Crimans, Carl Harbaugh, William Weller, Smith Daires, Jean de Gousac, E. A. Eberle, Miss Jessie Glendinning, Virginia Irwin, Isabelle Winloche and Naomi Childers.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.

The attendance of Prairie du Chien people at the Gays Mill fair this week was unusually large, many automobile owners going over in their machines. Among those who drove over were Dr. F. J. Aviator Kearney made successful airship flights every day of the fair, sailing over the fair grounds and the surrounding country.

Mrs. Jones, formerly of lower town, celebrated her ninety-second birthday Thursday, October 3, at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Ed Kunzman. Mrs. Jones was born in England October 3, 1820. She is the mother of William Fields of lower town and grandmother of Ted Fields and Mrs. Kunzman.

CATARRH

We are all familiar with our old friend, a cold in the head that comes from anywhere and develops into a chest trouble with an attendant cough, unless properly taken care of promptly.

Few of us in this climate are fortunate enough to escape the aggravating hawking, spitting, dropping in the throat, difficult breathing, foul taste in the mouth, stuffy feeling in the head or full feeling in the throat, according to the severity of the case; but how many of us realize that the "chronic cold" is catarrh and even if we do name the disease, how often do any of us go about a cure for it in the right way?

It is now conceded that catarrh finds its origin in the blood and the cause, therefore, must be removed before the local symptoms will disappear. The persons who are constantly having colds and occasionally let them run into more serious diseases, the acute forms of which are curable in a short time but leave a weakness that makes one susceptible to other things later on, should make an effort to get the kind of treatment that will STRIKE at the ROOT of the trouble—that is, take medical treatment that will drive out the taint that causes the mucous membranes to be attacked and then they will make some headway toward cure.

Dr. Turbin is in town once a month and from the remarkable cures he has been able to bring about, there is no question but what he is qualified to treat and cure catarrh. Prevent the development of lung trouble, catarrh of the stomach, bronchitis and numerous other maladies by attending to that case of catarrh at once.

Domestic Hints

(From The Scotch-American)

Apples are excellent for brain-workers, and should be eaten freely.

Oats contain a larger amount of flesh and boneforming substances than any other cereal.

A loaf of bread will keep fresh much longer if placed in a covered stone crock than in a tin box.

One tablespoonful of vinegar put into water in which meat or fowls are boiled makes them tender.

If soot falls on your carpet cover it quickly with dry salt and sweep up carefully. If this is done there will be no trace of the soot left.

Never cast aside your friends if by any possibility you can retain them. We are the weakest of spendthrifts if we let one drop off through inattention, or let one push away another, or if we hold aloof from one through petty jealousy or needless slight.

It is a mistake to think that fruit taken for the last meal of the day will prove indigestible. On the contrary, it is most beneficial. True indigestion arises from taking fruits in combination with a variety of other food substances. But fruit taken alone, either fresh or stewed, constitutes the best menu possible for the last meal of the day.

When brushing a room sweep toward the fireplace, otherwise the draught from the chimney draws the dust in that direction and scatters it about the room.

Jesus Walking on the Sea. Mark vi:45-56.

Golden Text—Straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. Matt. xiv:27.

(1.) Verse 45—Why did Jesus hurry off the apostles by ship so soon after feeding the multitude and when they were gone dismiss the people? (See John vi:15.)

(2.) Why were the apostles so unwilling to go that Jesus had to "constrain" them?

(3.) When God intimates to us a certain course of conduct contrary to our judgment or wishes is it ever right to hesitate or discuss the matter with Him, and why?

(4.) Why did Jesus not want them to make him their king?

(6.) Verse 46—Why was Jesus now in great need of prayer and what do you think were the special subjects for which he prayed?

(7.) If Christians consciously or unconsciously "pray without ceasing" why is there still need for special seasons of prayer?

(8.) Verse 47—Why is it that God permits contrary winds and tumultuous seas in the experience of so many of his children?

(9.) What time, according to Roman reckoning, was the "fourth watch of the night?"

(10.) If God permits or plans for the life of one of his children what answers to "toiling in rowing all night," what does that indicate?

(11.) Verses 49-50—What are the reasons for our belief that Jesus walking on the sea is literal historical fact?

(12.) What were the mental, spiritual, theological or psychological grounds for their first opinion that it was a spirit they saw walking on the water?

(13.) What evidence is there that spirits have visible form or that under any conditions they can be seen and conversed with?

(14.) If it had been a spirit which they saw was there any reason why they should cry out with fear? Give your reasons.

(15.) When God comes within the vision of any good man is there ever any reason for fear? Why?

(16.) What reason is there to believe that the words of Jesus, "Be of good cheer," are always, in effect, being repeated to us?

(17.) Verses 51-52—Why may we rest assured that by taking Jesus on board we shall have a pleasant and a safe journey?

(18.) Why did they and why should we wonder and be "amazed" when God keeps his promises and

Wit of Sages, Folly of Clown, Stolen Gems from Humor's Crown.

The Shadow Over Him
One of the really printable ones comes from a Methodist pastor in Columbus:

"A friend of mine conceived the idea that the presiding elder was prejudiced against him—this was many years ago. My friend had been shifted to a small and scattered settlement and he felt that he should have been sent to a more prominent position. I reminded him that he should not be dissatisfied.

"'Brother,' I said, 'you should pray that you may see the hand of the Lord in your appointment to this little charge.' 'I have, brother,' he replied, a little bitterly. 'Time and again I have prayed to the Lord that I might see His hand in it—but every time I looked up all I could see was the big paw of the presiding elder!'"

Cabby Had Tried It

"My dear friend," expostulated the clergyman to the cab driver, "I told you to hurry, but I surely never told you to use profanity. If you must say something strong to your horse, why not substitute such innocent words as 'go! darn!' or 'dad bing!'" They have the same explosive sound, and should surely be as effective."

"Ver rivenance, I tried that stunt wance," answered the cabby, "an' I was tin minutes late at th' Pennsylvania station. Shut yer ears while I spurt these plugs a bit."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Pardonable Curiosity

The country had never looked more beautiful. It was the heyday of summer, and the setting sun gilded the roses and glinted on the tiny panes beneath the old thatched roof.

Little Willie, who was a town-bred boy, and had never before visited the country, occupied an old fashioned stool beside the farmer's wife, marveling at all around him.

By and by the good lady began to pluck a chicken that was destined for the next day's dinner, and the little boy marveled the more.

As the feathers came from the defunct bird and were dropped into a basket, Willie's attention became more and more fixed, and his mind began to work freely. Finally he could stand it no longer, so he blurted out:

"Do you take off their clothes every night, auntie?"

CHURCH NEWS

Conditions in Mexico.

The American Baptist Home Mission society, which has had work in Mexico for half a century, and to which Baptists of the United States have given thousands of dollars, has just received word of the robbing of missionaries, and the murder of one of their leaders. The occurrence was near Caxeca, and the name of the murdered missionary was the Rev. Eustacio Garcia. He was a pure Aztec Indian, tall and handsome, and although young in years has accomplished much. In Ajusco, a village of two to three thousand, was a promising Baptist congregation. There came into the town a company of a thousand Zapatistas, and seemingly for no reason at all murdered a lot of people, among them the young pastor.

The same society, working with other Baptist societies, is just now entering upon a missionary campaign that takes in Baptist churches of all states east of the Mississippi. This campaign, authorized by the Northern Baptist convention, is to raise Baptist mission gifts to $3,000,000 a year, and to do so within the next three years. Following that Baptists plan to increase mission gifts to ten cents per member, which would mean $6,000,000 a year. The earlier task involves an

JOBLESS—HANGS SELF.

RACINE, Wis., Oct. 5.—Peter Davidson, 51, a teamster, hanged himself yesterday noon in despondency because he was unable to find work. He was an uncle of Miss Violet Buehler, whose mysterious disappearance from Chicago last winter caused country-wide search, until she was found in New York working as a nurse maid.

The average man will die for want of air in five minutes; for want of water in a week; for want of sleep in ten days.

There is nothing more convincing than eloquent silence.

"CASCARETS" BEST BOWEL CLEANSER

No Biliousness, Headache, Sour Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipation

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a will barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Last year Baptists had a spirited campaign to secure $250,000 for aged ministers. They succeeded in getting the sum subscribed, and it is stated that within a short time a second campaign will be ordered. In the course of a decade or so it is hoped to increase the relief fund to $1,000,000. Of that already subscribed $170,000 has been paid in.

Business Methods in Churches.

Those responsible for the conduct of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, which had a series of great conventions in principal cities two years ago, and following it published figures showing larger receipts for foreign missions, say now that they no longer watch receipts of incomes of mission boards, but that they are bending their energies toward better business methods in the churches, especially methods relating to the securing of money for missions. To prove their indifference to mere money income, they replied they did not know how societies closing their books this fall had made out in receipts, the question having been put to them.

The old plan, so they point out, was for churches to make appeals once a year, not all of them, and take a collection, first for one form of mission work, next for another form, and so on. There were many objections to the plan. The movement now aims to install in all the churches an all the year system, and to train laymen to operate it. The success of this plan has been marked. The movement says it brings larger interest, and eventually it will bring larger sums of money.

RIVER SEASON TO CLOSE OCTOBER 21

Work on Keokuk Dam Requires Stopping of Navigation; Thompson Issues Orders

Captain W. A. Thompson, government engineer today announced that all lights on the Mississippi river between Iowa and St. Paul, used for purposes of navigation, will be removed October 21. Government buoys will also be removed at that time.

The closing of the river to navigation at that time is due to an order issued by Major Keller in order to aid in the construction of the Keokuk dam. This work cannot be completed while the river is open to navigation at that point and in order to hurry the work, the river is being closed earlier than usual this season.

The announcement of the closing of the river above Keokuk was received with protests by many of the large steamship companies of Davenport and St. Louis but the value and benefits which will be derived through the rapid completion of the Keokuk enterprise is considered sufficient to warrant the action of the war department.

CHAPPELLE DRAFTED BY CLEVELAND NAPS

Outfielder Chappelle, formerly of Eau Claire, but who played with the Milwaukee team this year, has been drafted by the Cleveland Naps from the Brewers. The Naps selected Chappelle in preference to Leibold, another Milwaukee outfielder whom they drafted. This was Chappelle's first year in the American association but his great playing attracted much attention and he was given a high rating among the outfielders in the association.

HAVE SAME HYMN BOOK

MISS HELEN GOULD AND CYRUS H. MCCORMICK LEAD SONG AT OPENING OF RAILROAD "Y" MEET

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The right hand of Miss Helen M. Gould and the left hand of Cyrus H. McCormick held the same hymn book yesterday and both joined heartily in the singing of "Materna" at the opening of the International Conference of Railroad Young Men's Christian associations. The noted New York philanthropist and the Chicago financier were the central figures on the platform in the first session of the conference. They were given a tremendous ovation by the railroad workers.

Outside the Auditorium Miss Gould stopped with one foot on the step of a taxicab and pleasantly declined to say anything for publication. She was the target for several questions about railroad Y. M. C. A. work, but she would not be interviewed.

"No, I don't think I'll say anything," she said, "perhaps when I write a book—if I do—I'll give an interview. Not until then. Thank you so much, though, for asking me."

They are laughing let in Houston over a story told by William Breen, an enthusiastic hunter—even for a Texan. Bill was strolling over Big Thicket one day with his Remington repeater over his shoulder, every now and then adding to his bag. Coming over the clump of a hill he met a fellow huntsman packing an old single shot rifle.

"What yo' all huntin'?" queried Bill.

"Might po' a deer," answered the other laughingly.

"Seen any?" said Bill.

"Only three, so far," returned the stranger.

"Get a shot?" persisted the Houstonite.

"Yas, they was two got pretty nigh—but I ain't got but one load for my gun and I want-a hunt all day," was the startling explanation that still amuses Bill and his friends.

As a Last Resort

The stranger had to be compelled to linger twenty-four hours within the gates. "Well," queried the landlord of the village inn, as the stranger was settling his bill, "what do you think of our place as a summer resort?"

"I'd hate to tell you," answered the stranger, as he picked up his grip. "Even what I think of it as a last resort would not look well in print."

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Judge Moran at the application of State's Attorney Wayman this afternoon issued an order calling upon Dean Sumner and former United States District Attorney Sims to surrender in court the key to the vice report. This report, compiled by a commission of prominent men, scathingly bared conditions in the Chicago underworld. It referred to owners of property used for immoral purposes as letters or combinations of letters. The key to this remained in the custody of the commission and has never been made public although it was said to contain startling facts. This afternoon the state's attorney's office secured warrants for a dozen people, said to be prominent and wealthy owners of property used for immoral purposes. About 200 warrants have been issued so far today in the vice case started last night. Many of the leaders in underworld traffic have fled.

Wadsworth, Jr., who was named for lieutenant governor, is popular throughout the state. He has been speaker of the New York assembly, and for many years has been closely associated in a political way with William F. Barnes, acknowledged Republican leader of the state and one of President Taft's most valued political advisers.

FATHER CLEARY NOT A SOCIALIST

Noted Pulpit Orator Opens
Lecture Course at the La Crosse Normal School

HE TALKS ON CITIZENSHIP

Declares America Will Triumph Over All Its Difficulties and Optimism Should Prevail

"There are as many kinds of Socialisms as there are socialists," said Father James W. Cleary at the normal school auditorium last night in his lecture on "American Citizenship." His address was the first on the lecture course which the normal offers this year and a large and attentive audience was on hand to listen to the pulpit orator. Father Cleary declared that he could not speak authoritatively on socialism because he did not know just exactly what it was, that he had never been able to find out although he had spent much time and effort to do so. The speaker aroused much applause by his repeated sallies at socialism. That doctrine, he said, proclaimed that one man is good as another, but he pointed out the fallacy of this statement by saying that one good man is better than a bad one and that the early colonists thought themselves infinitely superior to King George and his ministers and thenceforth proceeded to become independent.

He said in part: "The foundation upon which Rome rested was not nearly as firm as that upon which America rests today. Never before in the world's history were the rights of man so closely defined, so impartially defended, and so stubbornly maintained. Rome was built upon a reverence for force and relied upon her cohorts to carry out her laws. America is built upon the worth of the individual, not upon his birth, wealth, or family distinction. In order to be a good American citizen it is not necessary to have been born in this country as some of the finest types of American statesmen were foreign born. Benedict Arnold was born in Connecticut and no intelligent citizen fails to grasp the difference between his character and that of George Washington.

"There are three elements which are necessary to the stability of any good government, authority, liberty and religion." Father Cleary showed how they are all harmoniously related without being in any way out of proportion. He explained that without authority and obedience to authority there is no government, that every man has personal liberty insofar that it does not encroach upon the rights of his neighbors.

"Anarchy is not to be tolerated," he said, "but each citizen should feel that he is himself one of the rulers of his country, that the officials he votes for are merely his servants and that to intelligently be a sovereign citizen he should watch carefully the acts of public officers.

"America has occasioned a new definition for the word liberty. Every man's rights are to be protected and there must be obedience to law upon the part of each individual. America is the greatest exhibition of brotherly love the world has ever seen, where a man is given credit for just what he is and not what his ancestors were.

"In the personal liberties granted under the constitution religious liberty was the most important. It is not the duty of the government to make the people moral but to make virtue easy and vice difficult. Religion reaches but where armies and navies do no good, it goes into the very hearts of men."

In conclusion Father Cleary expressed his belief that America would triumph over all its difficulties and that optimism should prevail everywhere.

MINISTER FLAYS WILSON

WILL TALK ON WHITE SLAVERY

Noted Anti-Vice Worker to Lecture at City Mission Sunday Evening

OPPOSED TO SEGREGATION

Will Urge on Parents Necessity of Greater Study of Children's Training

"The White Slave Traffic vs. the American Home" is the topic upon which Miss Madeline Southward of Winfield, Kansas, will speak at the City Mission Sunday night. Miss Southward, who is one of the foremost in the ranks of the anti-vice workers, is making a tour of the middle west, giving her talk on immoral conditions in some religious institution in each city.

In her lecture in this city, Miss Southward will draw a contrast between the model home and the houses of degradation which infest the American city. She is a forceful talker and will make a strong impression in her portrayal of existing conditions which accompany the life of the women who live a life of shame in the houses of ill fame.

Miss Southward is opposed to the policy of segregation, holding that it affects the women only and that sexual vice will continue as long as the American man is welcome in the houses of degradation and in the best of society circles.

One of Miss Southward's strongest contentions is that much of the evil of sexual vice is caused through neglect of the moral training of the boys and excessive moral politics in the training of girls.

Miss Southward, in her address here tomorrow night will urge upon parents the necessity of greater study on questions relative to child training along these lines.
